MICHAEL BRADLEY

Principal
Chief Investment Officer

Responsibilities:

Mike joined Greenfield Partners, LLC in 2000 and is currently Chief Investment Officer. His responsibilities include identification and analysis of potential real estate investments, and management of the acquistion group's activities.

Professional Experience:

Prior to joining Greenfield, Mike was Vice President at Aeroterm US, Inc. in charge of its US-based portfolio of air cargo assets. His responsibilities included the oversight and general management of the portfolio, including leasing, financing, property management, and acquisitions. Mike began his real estate career with Carter and Associates (a full service real estate development firm based in Atlanta, GA) as an asset manager.

Education:

MS, Planning and Urban Development, Georgia Institute of Technology.
BA, Mary Washington College

